

How Does My Insurance Deductible Reimbursement Account Work?

Your company has established a plan to reimburse you for a part of your in-network insurance deductible expense. Here is how it works:

You have a high deductible plan. You will be reimbursed for first dollar in-network deductible expenses as follows:

Months worked	Deductible Reimbursement
3 months -12 months	$1,000
+12 months-24 months	$2,000
+24 months-60 months	$3,000
+60 months-120 months	$4,000
+120 months	$5,000

You MUST submit both a claim form and an Explanation of Benefits (EOB) from the insurance company in order for your expense to be considered for reimbursement.
